Saturday 5 October was so different to last year at Seymour when the weather turned quite foul on us after having been dreadful the day before and over night.

This year started with sunshine, turned overcast and looked like rain but Mother Nature was good to us and the day turned out to be a perfect day for showing our horses.

We had some new faces to the show ring this year. Stacey Rusic on Tribal Dynasty riding side saddle; Jane Reid on Motu Armbro Scott NZ stepped out of her local SRG comfort zone and had a successful day – we hope to see more of Jane and Scotty during this season. Sheridan Meyles brought out her partbred mare Lucky Phoenix and went home quite happy after a successful day. Jessica Gale with Ethernet and Jessica Peace with Littlemisstrotalot are also new to the show ring this year and it was lovely to see young Chanel Radburn and Nell back in the Standardbred ring.

We did have some issues with members using whips in the Novice Rider and Novice Ridden classes – something members must keep in mind.

The Seymour Show Society was pleased with our numbers; especially there still being 6 horses competing at the end of the day.

Congratulations to all members who competed at Seymour: your horses were beautifully turned out and the friendly competition, that is the norm for the Standardbred ring, continues to impress not just our judge for the day but judges from nearby rings as well.
