

Mark Sagona Memorial Show

Sunday 15th March heralded the 19th running of the Mark Sagona Memorial Show. Our judge, Sally Centrone, was astounded at the quality of horses presented to her. The Line-ups for the Best on Show, champions and Supremes was indeed impressive. We had 21 horses compete, with mares outnumbering geldings for the first time in many years. We welcomed a number of new members to the SPPHAV and hope to see them out and about in future SPPHAV competitions.

Thanks to Susan Sagona who made the beautiful neck and arm garlands received by our major prize winners on the day and who provided up with yummy fresh food in the canteen. Our Sponsors were High Plains Horse Rugs, SPPHAV, Brentwood Lodge, Darcy Park Show Standardbreds and Gainsway Stockfeeds. Many thanks to all our sponsors, without whom we would be unable to run our show.

Our Major winners for the day were;

Best On Show – Savesometimetodream and Hollie Hildebrandt
Supreme Champion Led - Gowan Brae and Kelly Stuart-Mitchell
Supreme Champion Ridden – Savesometimetodream and Hollie Hildebrandt
Most Successful Female – Sevenknightsaweek and Fiona Williams
Most Successful Male – Double Art and Emily Barton for Darcy Park Standardbreds
Most Successful HRCVA registered – Sevenknightsaweek and Fiona Williams
Champion Harness – Franco Jameson and Nicole Williams
Champion Handler – Keira Barton
Champion Rider – Emily Barton

Thanks also to our judge, Sally Centrone, and steward, Wayne Barton, for kindly donating their time and expertise.

Congratulations to all.

Karen

Results for Most Successful Male ended up in a tie. A countback was performed as per the SPPHAV's method of counting the Most Successful Exhibit at the State Championships, with only the placing points being included. This method was used after consultation with SPPHAV committee members present on the day.
